and for this building which supports it,
we gather to dedicate the work of the Building for Mission Project in God's Name.

Let us pray.

Good and gracious God, we thank you for making us in your image, so that we may share in the ordering of your world.
Receive the work of our hands in this place, to the praise and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The children of the church offer this prayer, which they have written together.
Help our church be a place that people want to come to. May the people who come through this door feel closer to God. Make sure no one gets hurt. Keep people safe. Amen.

Standing at the door of the church, the Bishop says
Let the doors be opened.

The door is opened. The Bishop marks the threshold with the sign of the cross, saying let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new,

and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
And now, O Lord, sanctify this place, receive our offerings, and bless our hopes, for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.

RENEWAL OF OUR BAPTISMAL COVENANT

Through the Paschal mystery, dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life.
I call upon you, therefore, on this day of renewal and dedication, to renew the solemn covenant of Holy Baptism,

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Bishop Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Father in heaven, at the baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan you proclaimed him your beloved Son and anointed him with the Holy Spirit: Grant that all who are baptized into his Name may keep the covenant they have made, and boldly confess him as Lord and Savior; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON: ISAIAH II: 1-9

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord.

He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his loins.

The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den. They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

After the Reading there is silence for reflection.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God

PSALM 122

The psalm refrain is sung by everyone.

I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the Lord."

The words of the psalm are read aloud by everyone.

- 1 I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the LORD."
- 2 Now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

The psalm refrain is sung by everyone.

- 3 Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity with itself;
- 4 To which the tribes go up,
the tribes of the LORD,
the assembly of Israel,
to praise the Name of the LORD.
- 5 For there are the thrones of judgment,
the thrones of the house of David.

The psalm refrain is sung by everyone.

- 6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
"May they prosper who love you.
- 7 Peace be within your walls and quietness within your towers.
- 8 For my brethren and companions' sake,
I pray for your prosperity.
- 9 Because of the house of the LORD our God,
I will seek to do you good."

THE SECOND READING: EPHESIANS 3: 16-21

I pray that, according to the riches of God's glory, God may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

After the Reading there is silence for reflection.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God

The Rector reads the Gospel, first saying,

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People                      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory."

But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with

After a period of silence, the Bishop concludes with the following prayer.

We give you thanks, O God, for the gifts of your people, and for the work of many hands, which have beautified this place and furnished it for the celebration of your holy mysteries and for the building up of your realm of justice and compassion.
Accept and bless all we have done, and grant that in these earthly things we may behold the order and beauty of things heavenly and share the energy and joy of your creative power; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop then says

Let us now pray for the setting apart of the Altar.

PRESENTATION AND DEDICATION OF THE ALTAR

Presenters Bishop Cate, on behalf of all who seek to do and be the Gospel here, we offer this altar, designed and made by our own hands from trees grown on this land.

We hope that it will remind us always of God's sacrificial love and Christ's welcome to all.

The Bishop goes to the Table and, with arms extended, says

We praise you, Almighty and eternal God, that for us and for our salvation, you sent your Son Jesus Christ to be born among us, that through him we might become your sons and daughters.

Blessed be your Name, Lord God.

We praise you for his life on earth, and for his death upon the cross, through which he offered himself as a perfect sacrifice.

Blessed be your Name, Lord God.

We praise you for raising him from the dead, and for exalting him to be our great High Priest.

Blessed be your Name, Lord God.

We praise you for sending your Holy Spirit to make us holy, and to unite us in your holy Church.

Blessed be your Name, Lord God.

The Bishop lays a hand upon the Table, and continues

Lord God, hear us. Sanctify this Table dedicated to you.
Let it be to us a sign of the heavenly Altar where your saints and angels praise you for ever.
Accept here the continual recalling of the sacrifice of your Son.
Grant that all who eat and drink at this holy Table may be fed and refreshed by his flesh and blood, be forgiven for their sins, united with one another, and strengthened for your service.
Blessed be your Name, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; now and for endless ages. Amen.

+ THE HOLY COMMUNION +

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The People remain standing. The Celebrant faces them and says

God is with you.

People

And also with you.

Celebrant

Lift up your hearts.

People

We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death, and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life;
that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may without shame or fear rejoice to behold his appearing.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Celebrant and People sing

THE SANCTUS

The melody of the Sanctus from the Land of Rest Acclamations is not reproduced on the web site to honor our copyright agreement.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation;
in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.
For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world.
In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you.
In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.
On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said,
"Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."
Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory.

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.
We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.
Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Celebrant and People sing together

The melody of the Great Amen from the Land of Rest Acclamations is not reproduced on the web site to honor our copyright agreement.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

All are welcome at God's holy table, no matter what your background or denomination in the Church. If it is your custom to receive communion at your home church, please feel free to receive it here. The bread is received in open hands or on the tongue. It is not necessary to receive both bread and wine for Communion to be complete. If you choose not to receive, you are welcome to come forward for a blessing. Simply cross your hands over your chest to show that this is your preference.

Gluten-free Communion bread is available. To receive it, cup one hand over the other, palms down, as the Celebrant approaches. Then, turn your hands over to receive the bread.

COMMUNION HYMN We Are the Light of the World Jonathan Hutchison

*Refrain: We are the light of the world, shining with your light, a city on a mountaintop.
Help us shine on through the night! Help us shine on through the night!*

Lost and empty then you found us, and we felt your love surround us.

None of us will ever be the same.

Now the looks upon our faces and the warmth of our embraces draw other lonely hearts to your flame. - Refrain

It's not enough to find release, praise your name or rest in peace.

What will be our answer to your call?

Make us all a little bolder, standing there shoulder-to-shoulder with the ones whose backs are to the wall! ~ Refrain

At the end: Help us shine!

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

After Communion, the Bishop says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
